Must be Right.

No matter how little the price we name you in our store, there is never any cheapening of the quality. Unusually reasonable prices never signify a lowness of the grade with us, for that is at good merchandizing. It's always the quality first—then a price that will make it sell quickly, so that any item selected from our stock may be relied upon. It is always the best that your money can procure.

Early January Specials.

To keep the selling interest and to clear remaining stocks of seasonable goods, these special clearance values are offered. It's splendid economy to keep in close touch with our store through January, for so many different lines are placed upon sale, at clean sweep prices, that it makes interesting shopping. Dress Goods, Capes, Cloaks, Men, Women and Children's Shoes, Blankets, Gloves, Mittens, &c.

January "Clean-Sweep" Selling.

Seasonable lines—right in the height of the season's needs—with every trace of profit, and oftentimes a part of the first cost, eliminated. There's more than your money's worth in every item. It pays to buy of us through January. Clothing, Wool Underwear, Hats, Caps, &c.

You'll Make A Mistake.

And you'll probably write it Jan. 1st, 1897. That's the usual thing. You'll make a mistake, as well, if you fail to make your clothing purchases at our store during the January Clearance Sale. It's a season when profits are lost sight of—"house cleaning" time, for all seasonable goods must be sold, and clothing buyer's receive the benefits. Splendid values all through the store—every item bristling with the lowest, clean-cut price—every article the stylish, dependable kind.

More Use of Schools and Churches.

Social activity, intellectual life—these are much needed in many a rural community, especially in winter. Clubs of various kinds, evening classes, an atheneum, and similar efforts to supply this want, are often discouraged because they have no place to meet without paying rent. Yet most of the churches in country and town are opened but once a week, while the schoolhouses are occupied only from 9 to 4. Millions of dollars are invested in these buildings that are but half used. There is a general movement on foot to throw open both schools and churches, for objects of this kind, during the hours they are not used for their original purpose. The idea is the right one. The schoolhouse should be the center of learning and pleasure for old as well as young; the church should be a home of intellectual and social inspiration week days, instead of being occupied only on Sunday. This means better homes, better society, better Christianity.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers can be applied when at home, and is uniformly successful in coloring a brown or black. Hence its great popularity.

Small-Pox.

The small-pox, which has appeared sporadically in many parts of the South, has appeared in two places in North Carolina—Wilmington and Charlotte, two cases in each city, one of the subjects dying. Many people are being vaccinated.

KILLED HIS TENANT.

Farmer Lamm Stamped Pierson Eatman to Death.

A BUSINESS DISPUTE.

Eatman's Wife and Son Also Injured.

At the residence of T. R. Lamm, Wilson, N. C. about six miles from town, Pierson Eatman was killed Saturday night about 8 o'clock by T. R. Lamm, and Lamm is in a critical condition from the effects of a pistol ball fired by Eatman. Full facts appear hard to get as yet, but from the best information it appears that Eatman, who is a tenant of Lamm, was dissatisfied with a settlement between him and his landlord, and they fell out over the settlement, and Eatman shot Lamm with a pistol. Lamm stamped Eatman to death and kicked and stamped Eatman's son and knocked his wife down. Young Eatman was badly bruised up, but neither he or Mrs. Eatman were seriously injured. The ball entered Lamm's breast and it is not yet known whether or not it will prove fatal. Eatman and Lamm were both dangerous men, and there is very little surprise expressed by the community over the homicide. Lamm is a wealthy man, having accumulated considerable money in the past few years.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF IT.

A terrible tragedy took place last Saturday night at Wilson, at "Lamm's Store," about seven miles west of Wilson. All kinds of rumors were afloat, a first it was heard that all the parties who engaged in the frightful duella were killed. From reliable authority we learn that only one man is dead and two, perhaps mortally wounded, the dead man being Mr. Pierson Eatman, who met his death at the hands of Mr. T. R. Lamm. The dead man and his son were tenants of Mr. Lamm, and several days ago a dispute arose between them relative to a lot of cotton. Eatman and his son at night went to Lamm's Store and commenced to fire promiscuously about the premises. Mr. Lamm went out and requested the parties to disperse, whereupon Pierson Eatman turned his weapon, a 38 calibre pistol, upon Lamm and fired. Lamm then knocked his assailant down and stamped him to death, crushing his head into a mass of jelly. Lamm then turned upon Eatman's son, knocked him down and lacerated his head in a terrible manner with his foot, crushing in the cerebellum and severing one ear from his head. The chances are that both Lamm and young Eatman will die. Mr. Lamm was shot only once, the ball taking effect in the right side just over or about the bowels.

Fifty Years Ago.

Who could imagine that this should be the place where, in eighteen ninety-three that white world-wonder of arch and dome should shadow the nations, polychrome. Here at the Fair was the prize conferred on Ayer's Pills, by the world preferred. Chicago-like, they a record show. Since they started—50 years ago.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

have, from the time of their preparation, been a continuous success with the public. And that means that Ayer's Pills accomplish what is promised for them; they cure where others fail. It was fitting, therefore, that the world-wide popularity of these pills should be recognized by the World's Fair medal of 1893—a fact which emphasizes the record. 50 Years of Cures.

VISITS HEAVEN IN TRANCES.

A special from Cardiff, N. Y., says: Mrs. Truman Wright, aged 86, the wife of a farmer and old resident, has had several trances in the past two weeks. She says she has been to heaven, and described the golden streets and the congregation of angels, and declared that she had stood in the incomparable presence of the Lord, who had given her messages to be conveyed to her friends on earth. These messages, she says, are to be revealed through her son Truman, who claims to also have had a vision of the spirit world.

Congressman Harry Skinner has received a favorable report from the War Department for an appropriation to make Beaufort harbor a harbor of refuge. The War Department recommends an appropriation of $1,500,000 for this purpose. Mr. Skinner will go before the River and Harbor Committee and urge that this item be placed in the river and harbor appropriation bill. Should it fail in the House the North Carolina Senators will no doubt see to it that the appropriation is tacked on it in the Senate in the shape of an amendment.
